V In reviewing the Report on the Administration of Criminal Justice for the year 1909-10, Govt stated that it was considered desirable that all the Courts of subordinate magistrates should be inspected by the Dist. Magistrates or Sessions Judges at least once a year and ^{orders that} detailed information about the inspection should be given in the Reports.

Y In G.O. no. J3722-30/85 182-10-5, 24.6.12, it was directed that Courts of First Class Magistrates should be inspected by the Dist. Magistrates at least once a year.

If the First Councillor agrees, the Chief Court may be requested to draw up beforehand a provisional programme of inspection of the subordinate Criminal Courts for the succeeding year, and to forward a copy of it for the information of Government.

Similar programmes may be obtained by the Chief Court from the courts subordinate thereto, which have to do inspection work.

The programmes should be adhered to as far as possible.

 is unnecessary to ask for programme beforehand from the Chief Court. They will adjust

I am unable to make up dicate our desire as we have occasionally done,

that there should be proper

~~shall~~ ^{be} not right ⁱⁿ ~~to~~ calling for

we should ^{be} ~~if~~ we ask for

31) In Bombay, "no inspection reports of the Judges of the High Court are regularly submitted to Govt., but notes of inspection are sometimes communicated by the High Court to Govt.," and these notes are said to be of general nature.

32) In Punjab, there has been no regular system of inspection by the Judges, and no inspection report has been submitted to Govt.

33) In Central Provinces ^{United Provinces}, also, it is not the practice to submit the inspection reports to Govt.

34) In Bengal, copies of inspection reports are forwarded to Govt. but they are not reviewed. It is reported that there has been no inspection since 1911.

35) In Madras, Sir Leslie Miller's inspection report was forwarded to Govt., but it was transferred to the High Court without scrutiny, and it is stated that the inspection
